NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 12.

CONSOLS in London yesterday were ⅛ lower, but the 3½ per cent. Indian Loan was ¼ higher and other Securities unaltered.

In the Produce markets, Coffee is unchanged, Cochin Cocoanut-oil is £1 higher. Linseed is quiet and the turn lower in value. Rapeseed shows no change. Wheat is dull.

Reuter reports the Manchester Piece-goods market as quiet but firm, at the same time, however, advancing prices for 3 lb. Madapollams ¼d., for 7 lb. and 8¼ lb. Shirtings 1¼d. per piece, and for 40's Mule Twist ½d. per lb.

Cotton in Liverpool yesterday was steady for Americans, firm for Surats, and to-day is reported strong. The sales of both days are estimated at 12,000 bales, but there is no change in prices. In New York yesterday ready Mid.-Uplands were unchanged, whilst future's were 14 points higher, but to-day ready Cotton is quoted ⅛ cent., February shipment 16 points higher. The moving influence is of course the moderate scale of receipts at the American ports. For the past week they are certainly over last year, but only by 8,000 bales, and to pace a week of 255,000 bales last year we begin to-day with only 29,000 bales as compared with 39,000. These figures point to a very moderate crop, something under six millions, and if so, Cotton, especially Surats, is not dear at present pieces.

The American Crop figures to date give the following comparisons with the two previous years :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Week's Receipts	223,000	216,000	219,000
" Exports to U. K.	52,000	76,000	122,000
" " to Continent	47,000	34,000	60,000
Total Receipts since 1st Sept.	1,599,000	1,850,400	1,662,000
" Exports to U. K. "	494,700	638,800	650,000
" to Continent "	265,100	311,700	253,000
" Stock in the Ports	780,000	774,000	578,000

The visible supply of Cotton for all Europe on the 11th instant compares with the corresponding date of the two previous years as follows :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Total supply of all kinds	2,310,000	2,135,600	1,808,400
" Surats	341,000	251,230	276,740

For the U. K. only the figures are :—

Stock in Liverpool	503,000	423,480	287,670
" London	43,000	43,330	53,150
American Afloat	120,000	252,000	320,000
E. Indian "	30,000	34,000	30,000
	707,000	752,810	690,820
Price of Mid-Uplands	6 7-16d.	6 7-16d.	6¼d.
" Fair Dholleras	4 3-16d.	4¼d.	5¼d.
Difference..	2¼d.	1 9-16d.	1¼d.

EXCHANGE.—There has been very little doing in sterling to-day, and rates are not quotably altered, but they are decidedly firm and have move of an upward than downward tendency. We quote :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 31-32d.	per Rs.
Do. telegraphic	1s. 7 15-16d.	"
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 8d.	"
Credits, 2 " "	1s. 8¼d.	"
Documents, 3 " "	1s. 8 9-32d.	"
Bronze 3 " "	2f. 14c.	"

On Calcutta rates are 1-16 higher, demand being now quoted 1-16 premium ; 60 days' sight 13-16 per cent. discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER is quiet, but no lower. Fours we quote at Rs. 101½, Fours-and-a-half Rs. 110¾.

SHARES have been fairly active. Bank of Bombays are Rs. 10 higher at Rs. 745. Colaba Land shares are Rs. 10 up at Rs. 840. Press Companies are firm. Albert of Kurrachee have advanced Rs. 20, Berars Rs. 5, Dhollera Press Rs. 10, Mofussils Rs. 2½. Spinning and Weaving Mills shares are weak owing to the unfavourable state of the market for Goods and Yarns. A very general decline of Rs. 5 is quoted and Dhurrumseys are Rs. 22½ lower. Treacher & Co., Limited, are Rs. 5 lower.

COTTON to-day has been firm and sellers are trying to obtain an advance of Re. 1 to Rs. 2 per share on the strength of the rise in New York, but only in a few instances has it been paid. Ginned Broach for March has changed hands at Rs. 227, F. G. F. and G. F. Khandeish at Rs. 198 and Rs. 188 respectively.

SEEDS are unchanged, as also Wheat, for which the enquiries still hold good.

FREIGHTS are unaltered in every respect. For Liverpool the market is dull at 37s. 6d.

PIECE-GOODS are dull almost to depression, and prices in some cases are slightly lower.

COALS are in request, but sellers ask as 8 over what buyers are disposed to pay.

SEVERE STORM AT MADRAS.
LOSS OF SEVERAL LIVES.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
MADRAS, Nov. 13.

At 2 o'clock yesterday morning a gale sprang up from the north-west, and increased until the wind attained about half the maximum velocity recorded in the cyclone of 1872. As the weather at Bimlipatam and Negapatam was reported calm, it is concluded that Madras was on the border of the cyclone vortex. The Mars, a sailing ship, was anchored outside the harbour, and the steam hopper barges Salisbury and Hobart, engaged in laying moorings, were lashed together and anchored within the harbour, which was clear of other shipping.

At daybreak it was discovered that the sea had washed away many of the concrete blocks, weighing 27 tons each, forming the upper tier of the eastern piers, and the water, meeting little resistance, was sweeping into the harbour, causing a swell of the waves and surf as though no works existed. At 10 o'clock a heavy sea struck the end of the southern pier. It leaped up the covered Titan crane, which immediately afterwards disappeared, and at eleven o'clock the Titan on the northern pier followed. At seven o'clock the military and civil police and the medical authorities were warned by appointed gun signals to be in a state of preparedness for emergencies. The Mars put to sea, and then the two barge-s parted company, fouled, and capsized. The European mooring engineer and three of the native crew were saved; but the European captain and fourteen of the native crew were drowned. During the night the sea continued its ravages until about seven hundred feet of the east pier had lost almost the whole of the topmost tier of blocks, the sea flowing easily into the harbour. What other damages the work sustained is yet unknown. The piers from the shore to the bends are intact, though the sea continues curling along each side, and often dashes over or rolls along the top.

On Friday night a passenger boat returning to the shore at Coconada from the steamer Kerbela capsized. M. Lefaucteur, French Consul, and the two elder daughters of Captain Gillham, Master Attendant, were drowned; the crew and one passenger were saved.

(FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.)
MADRAS, Nov. 13.

It is impossible yet to know what damage has been sustained by the harbour pier, but this much is certain—that the north pier is unhurt for a length of two thousand three hundred and fifty feet, but from that point to the end—about one thousand five hundred feet—the top row blocks have been knocked over. The ends of the two piers are standing, but have settled about two feet. The south pier is quite as sound as far as two thousand four hundred and fifty feet; after that the top blocks have been knocked over. The two Titans have been knocked over, and are probably irrecoverable. The new buoys drifted and came ashore last night. The barges Hobart and Salisbury went down, and the commander and crew, except six, were drowned; no bodies have been recovered yet.

(By Reuter's Indian Telegraph.)
MADRAS, Nov. 12.

At 2 a.m. a gale from the north-west set in, with heavy rain, which still continues. Much damage has been done to harbour works, very heavy sea washing over both groins. Many blocks have gone, and the outer end of the south groin appears to have considerably subsided. A very heavy surf is breaking within the groins. There are four fathoms of water. At half-past ten the Titan crane at the end of the south groin was carried away, and at noon that on the north end met a similar fate. The groin has been breached behind.

THE VICEROY'S TOUR.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)
VICEROY'S CAMP, AGRA, Nov. 13.

Yesterday afternoon the Viceroy paid return visits to Maharaja Sindia, the Maharaja of Bhurtpore, and the Maharana of Dholepore at their residences, with the usual formalities. Afterwards the Viceroy visited the Agra College, being conducted through the various class-rooms by Mr. Dighton, the principal.

Lady Ripon visited the Canning Girls' School at the same time, afterwards paying a visit to the Maharani of Dholepore. To-day her Excellency has moved into Dinkur Rao's house, finding the temperature in tents unpleasantly high.

Sir George Couper left Agra this evening, a detachment of the 14th Bengal Lancers escorting him to the station.

In the afternoon, at 5 o'clock, the Viceroy visited St. Peter's College, addressing the students in a short speech in response to a glee of welcome sung by the choir. A large number of visitors were present. The school-rooms were nicely decorated.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE RECEPTIONS IN CALCUTTA.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
CALCUTTA, Nov. 13.

His Excellency the Viceroy will hold his first levée at Government House on Saturday, the 3rd December, and the Marchioness of Ripon a drawing-room on the 6th December.

THE JUDICIAL SERVICE OF BENGAL.

The Englishman says that after all there seems very little hope that the Secretary of State will sanction the appointment of two additional judges to the Bengal High Court. One of the new judges was to have been Mr. O'Kinealy, the Legal Remembrancer, now absent on leave, and the other a native. Mr. O'Kinealy is expected to arrive from England in the beginning of December, and will relieve Mr. Allen, who is officiating Legal Remembrancer, Mr. Cornell retiring from the service, Mr. Allen will go as Judge of Midnapore, and Mr. Charles, officiating for Mr. Allan as Judge of Rajshaye, will remain in that appointment.

THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF'S TOUR.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
KURRACHEE, Nov. 13.

Three minute-guns fired at 2 a.m. on Friday, from the Manora fort announced the arrival of the May Frere in harbour. Immediately the yacht came to her moorings off Keamari, General Oldershaw, accompanied by Colonel Tanner, C.B., Major Shortland, Royal Artillery, Captain Elliot, Assistant Quartermaster-General, and Captain Brebner, the Master Attendant, went in the steam launch Flirt to welcome the arrivals. His Excellency left the May Frere in the Flirt, accompanied by Brigadier-General Annesley, Colonel Pottinger, and Major-General Gatacre, and landed at the passenger pier, the steps and centre of which had been tastefully laid with scarlet cloth, where he was received by Colonel Simpson of the 98th Regiment and others; and he then drove to Government House, where he is the guest of the Commissioner.

The vessels in harbour and the flagstaffs on shore made a brave show of bunting, and the landing pier was decked in the national colours in honour of his Excellency's visit.

The passage from Bombay was pleasant and enjoyable.

In the afternoon his Excellency inspected the Sanitarium, and in the evening the Commissioner entertained him at dinner and a dance, which was kept up till one o'clock.

On Saturday morning General Hardinge made a complete inspection of the lines, hospitals, and commissariat stores. Commencing with the Royal Artillery lines, he went through the different barracks, finishing with the Napier hospital and lines, in which the 98th Regiment have suffered so much from fever and scurvy since their arrival here in September, 1880. His Excellency was particularly pleased with the construction of the Napier barracks, and expressed great satisfaction at their smart and cleanly appearance. The Sind Civil and Military Gazette thinks his Excellency will not recommend their condemnation, or the erection of new barracks at Ghizree, as suggested by the medical authorities.

His Excellency also inspected the battalion canteen, and he and the staff tasted some Sicilian wine imported by Colonel Simpson through Messrs. Woodhouse and Co. of Malta for the use of the troops. The wine is cheap, is used in large quantities in Malta in all regimental and naval canteens and is considered better than porter or beer.

On Saturday afternoon General Hardinge held a levée at 4 o'clock, which was attended by the officers in garrison; and in the evening he was the guest of General Oldershaw.

This morning he visited Manora, and inspected the batteries and harbour. To-morrow morning he will inspect the troops here, and in the evening will dine with the officers of the 98th Regiment, and afterwards attend a performance at Frere Hall.

LORD HARTINGTON UPON THE ABOLITION OF INDIAN COTTON DUTIES.

LONDON, Nov. 11.

The Marquis of Hartington, replying to a deputation of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce urging the immediate abolition of the Indian cotton duties, promised that the attention of the Home and Indian Governments should be given to the matter, but said that at the present moment it would not be right to make a specific declaration. His Lordship expressed his opinion that a complete abolition of the duties in question would benefit India as much as Lancashire; yet the Government must regard the question as one of revenue, which could not admit of a decrease from one source without special regard to others, especially as portions of the revenue (as, for instance, opium) were precarious, and that other claims to an abolition of duty besides cotton duties were to be considered when framing the Budget.

As will be seen from our advertisement columns, the Choral Festival this year takes place at the Cathedral on Tuesday, the 22nd inst., at 5-30 p.m., with Mr. Mant presiding at the organ, and Mr. Wyer as conductor. The anthems selected are "With Angels and Archangels" and "Glorious is Thy name," Mozart's 12th Mass. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. R. French, M.A., from Secunderabad; and the offertory will be in aid of the fund for adding the other wing to the new Cathedral High School. To meet the cost of printing and other expenses, and at the same time to secure a more orderly observance of the festival, it has been decided that there shall be no admission without a Book of the Words (in lieu of ticket), to be obtained on written application to the secretary, Choral Festival, Cathedral Vestry, at a charge of 8 annas each.

The meeting of the Bombay Municipal Corporation on Saturday afternoon was adjourned for want of a quorum. The chairman, Dr. Blaney, observed that adjournments for want of a quorum were now frequent, and as the Corporation had to consider and pass the budget estimates within a very short period, the matter was a serious one. Dr. Cook also spoke in the same strain, and remarked that his afternoon had been spoiled. Mr. Nowrojee Furdonjee said that although some of the citizens were most anxious to be elected to the Corporation, they would not do their duty when called upon.

An Ahmedabad correspondent writes that snipe and ducks are reported to be very numerous this season, and a sportsman can easily secure twenty or thirty brace of the former in a few hours. The weather, however, is still very hot during the day-time, and there is a good deal of fever about. The Collector and other district officers have all left on their usual tour, and the place is almost empty.

We hear that Brigadier-General Lyttelton-Annesley, the Adjutant-General of the Army, will, in addition to the numerous other prizes given by him for competition at the Central Rifle Meeting, offer one to be shot for solely by native officers of the Bombay Army next year.

Madame Blavatsky, it is stated has been visiting Lahore and Umballa, and made some new converts, and "the dear old lady" intends to visit Dehra Doon, and Agra, Jeypore, Baroda, and other important places on her way to Bombay, with the view to establish branch societies in those towns.

Intimation has been received by the Director of the Post Office in India of the loss by the wreck of the steamer Clan Macduff of 3,516 letters and 2,314 newspapers for soldiers and seamen.

It is stated that Colonel J. G. Lindsay has been appointed Engineer-in-Chief of the Southern Mahratta Railway, and that the system will include the Bellary and Hubli line and the Bombay Eastern Deccan Railway.

Mr. Jardine, Judicial Commissioner of Burma, a Rangoon correspondent writes, has been appointed head of the educational syndicate by the Chief Commissioner. "I am afraid this is working a willing horse to death. The civil and criminal jurisdiction over the whole of the courts in the province except in Rangoon town is surely sufficient for one man's energies. But yet more is thrust on him, and I hope Mr. Jardine's health may enable him to stand the strain. He is looking very fagged now. I believe he leaves in a few days for Arakan to inspect the courts there. Occasional sea trips to Arakan and Tenasserim are about the only relaxation his duties allow, the work is so incessant."

Says the Indian Spectator:—"It is to be hoped that the Bombay Gazette's admirable leader of Thursday, regarding the disposal of the Famine Insurance Fund, has not escaped the authorities. The Gazette represents the matter in its true light. The Famine Insurance Fund will be best invested in Government paper; and that, we agree, is the only way of keeping it out of the reach of temptation. The Finance Minister knows this well; he also knows it too well that the present administration will not last for ever."

A Madras paper says that "Bombay has nothing to compare with the Madras Club, the Madras Cathedral, the Madras Terminus, or the Madras Banqueting Hall." It might have added, "or the Madras Harbour Works." And what about the Bombay Sailors' Home, Secretariat, University buildings, High Court, Public Works, Post and Telegraph Offices, and the several handsome school buildings at the southern corner of the Esplanade, the School of Art, the Crawford Markets, the Gaiety Theatre, &c., &c., &c.?

Noticing a rumour that in the event of Doctors Graham and Bellew, of the Assay Department, at the Bombay Mint, availing themselves of their annuities next year, Captain G. Martin, S.C., Officiating Deputy Assay Master, will probably be confirmed in his present post, the Indian Daily News asks:—Why are the claims of Mr. F. W. Peterson, who acted as Deputy Assay Master both in Calcutta and Bombay, overlooked?

The Civil and Military Gazette hears from Peshawur that the Deputy Commissioner has demanded the surrender of Kamal from the Tirah Jirga. It is said that the demand was verbally acceded to, but no one believes that the man will be given up.

It is expected that the Viceroy will leave Calcutta for Rangoon on December 16, and return in time for New Year's Day. The visit will probably be of a private character.

The Lahore paper hears from Kabul that a caravan of 300 camels laden with merchandise for India from Kabul was surprised and plundered by armed parties under Sadoo Khan and Dadu Khan, who made good their escape with their booty into the Suliman Kheyl hills. Sirdar Ahmed Khan thereupon marched with a force to the Khoord Kabul pass and destroyed the forts of the freebooting chiefs. Sarwar Khan, Mahomed Hussain Khan, and his brother have been imprisoned by the Amir, while Sultan Mahomed Khan, Mahomed Usman Khan, and one of the Herati Sirdars, suspected of corresponding with Ayoub Khan, have been released. Mir Butcha is reported to be about to leave the Shinwari country for Bejour to join Faiz Mahomed.

It is stated that the prize of Rs. 200 offered by the Government of India for the best essay on puraplegia, or kanwa disease, will probably not be awarded, only one paper having been submitted. A contemporary suggests that the Government may see their way to obtain competitors by doubling the amount of the prize, and so secure inquiry into so important a matter.

The kharif harvest in the North-West Provinces is nearly complete, and there has been a fair average outturn. The prospects of the rabi, unfortunately, are compromised by a want of moisture in Oudh generally, and in the Allahabad division of the North-West Provinces. Fever is still very prevalent; many deaths are reported in the Rae Bareilly district.

Mr. A. H. Mason succeeds Mr. F. Lepper as Professor of Engineering at the Government Engineering College at Howrah.

M. de Ujfalvy, the distinguished anthropologist, who came out to India at the beginning of this year on a scientific mission, and has been spending some months in Kashmir and Baltistan, is reported to have returned to Lahore. His observations amongst the Baltis, the Pioneer states, have convinced him that this people are of Aryan extraction, but this opinion will doubtless be qualified before it is given to the world in a complete form. Major Biddulph's belief is that the Baltis are a mixed race, who have been Aryanized by an infusion of Dard blood. "I have seen Baltis," says Major Biddulph, "who in personal appearance could not be distinguished from the Dards, while others only require a pigtail and a sheep-skin coat to pass for Ladakhis."

Advantage is about to be taken of the approaching departure of Surgeon-General Crawford for Europe, to take up the post of Director-General of the Army Medical Department, the Civil and Military Gazette states, to introduce an important reform in connection with the medical services in India. A proposal, recommended strongly by the Government of India, has been sent home by a recent despatch, to abolish the double appointments of Surgeons-General of the Indian and British Medical Departments, and to at once bring in the unification system. It is now arranged, if the India Office will sanction the scheme, to place the whole medical services under one head, who is to be in future styled the Director-General of the Medical Department in India. This official is to receive the sum of Rs. 3,500 per mensem salary, and thereby considerable will be effected a saving over the present system of Rs. 20,800 annually. The wants of India, as far as a Medical Establishment is concerned, it is proposed to supply by the formation of a Medical Staff Corps, which will be recruited, it is proposed, by volunteers from the British Medical Service, and direct appointments from nominees who are selected by a certain number of the British Medical Schools. The proposed reform has had its origin, we understand, in Dr. Cuningham, the Surgeon-General with the Government of India, but it is only fair to say that it is believed the scheme has also received the imprimatur of Surgeon-General Crawford. It is almost needless to add that, as a reward for financial virtue and self-sacrifice, Dr. Cuningham has been nominated to the proposed Director-Generalship, and will, in all probability, on the 1st of April next, nemine interim dissentiente at the India Office or Horse Guards, blossom forth in the full dignity of the new office. Our contemporary adds:—"Whatever be the merits of the proposed scheme—and upon this point there will be of course room for considerable adverse discussion and warm controversy—there will certainly be a general consensus of public opinion, both official as well as extra official, against the proposed appointment. It will be looked upon as a disregard and supersession of many officers of senior rank to the Director-General designate, whose qualifications and claims to the proposed appointment are superior to those of Dr. Cuningham. It is easy also to anticipate some dissatisfaction which will be created when the officers of the British Medical Service are apprised of the fact that the claims of their seniors are ignored."

The Englishman thus writes on a question of interest to military men:—The vacancy in the Adjutant-General's Department which will be occasioned on the 1st proximo owing to Lieutenant-Colonel Thompson, Bengal S. C., now on furlough, having completed his five years' tenure, will, it is reported, most probably be filled by the appointment of Major Ford of the Royal Artillery to the establishment, he being now officiating as Assistant Adjutant-General of the Sirhind Division for the permanent incumbent, Lieutenant-Colonel Thompson. To those uninitiated in the mysteries of appointment to the staff of the Army it would appear strange that an officer of the Royal Artillery should succeed one belonging to the Bengal Staff Corps, but the fact is Major Ford belongs to the old Bengal R. A.; consequently, according to the wishes of the Commander-in-Chief, he may be considered of whichever service is found most convenient. In this instance, it is convenient to consider him of the Indian service, not as it was in the case of Colonel, now Major-General Sir J. Hills, for with him it was found more conducive to the happiness of all concerned to consider him a Royal, pure and simple, so as to fill the vacancy caused by the late Lieutenant-Colonel Brooke, appointed Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army. The officers of the late Bengal Artillery, it will be seen, have a great pull over all others as regards appointment to the Army Staff. Now, however, comes a difficulty which, if the appointment is given as reported, has to be tided over. Major Ford, it is well known, has got the first refusal of Lieutenant-Colonel Goldie's berth at head-quarters as Assistant Adjutant-General when that officer rejoins his regiment in March to take command. Colonel Goldie belongs to the British service, the 6th Carabineers, so Major Ford would have to change his colours, chameleon-like, and become once again a British officer. If this phenomenon takes place it will be interesting to watch what follows. Will he be considered as holding the appointment at head-quarters as a British officer or as an Indian officer? If the latter, then there will have to be a change as regards the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-Generalship, which should fall—to equalise the services—to a British officer. The mystery will unravel itself, and we shall soon know what are the arrangements found most convenient. There are wheels within wheels all over the world, and Simla is no exception to the rule; we cannot, however, think it possible that so chameleon-like an arrangement can be contemplated, but lean more to the belief in the rumour that the appointment on the 1st December will be given to Lieutenant-Colonel Biscoe, 19th Royal Lancers, so that Major Ford can be accommodated at head-quarters, thereby sticking to his colours as a Royal.

It is reported that the Government of India have sanctioned the construction, by Messrs. Burn and Co., Calcutta, of a railway from Baidyanath station on the East Indian Railway to Deoghur and Rahim. There will be no Government guarantee, and the land required is to be granted at a peppercorn rental. The length of the line is six miles, which is to be leased for a thousand years on the terms that the line is to be completed in twelve months from delivery of the land under penalty of Rs. 500 per week. The construction and working will be subject to orders of the Secretary of State. The Government mails are to be carried free, and the fares to exceed eight, four, and two annas, respectively. The Governor-General views with much satisfaction this genuine effort of an unguaranteed private enterprise.

Vanity Fair says:—The rumour gains ground that Parliament will very shortly be called together, and that further proposals will be made of repressive measures for Ireland. The advantage of discussing such measures with Mr. Parnell in Kilmainham instead of St. Stephen's will be evident to the meanest capacity.

Mrs. Money has commenced a suit against her sister, the Baroness Burdett-Coutts, in reference to the fortune passing under the will of the late Duchess of St. Albans.

The Evening Mail asks whether Mr. Parnell has intimated to his Wicklow tenantry that they need not pay his agent any rent until their landlord is released from gaol.

Dr. deJongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil.—In Consumption its efficacy is unequalled. Dr. Sinclair Coghill, Physician to the Royal National Hospital for Consumption, Ventnor, writes:—"I have convinced myself that in Tubercular and the various forms of Strumous Disease, Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil possesses greater therapeutic efficacy than any other Cod Liver Oil with which I am acquainted. Dr. de Jongh's Oil is now the only Cod Liver Oil used in the Royal National Hospital for Consumption and Diseases of the Chest." THE VICEROY'S TOUR.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)
AGRA, Nov. 10.

My last letter to you was too long to admit of more than a brief reference to the many ancient memorials in and about the neighbourhood of Agra which naturally fill an important part in the Viceroy's programme. Guide-books descriptive of these memorials are as thick as the leaves of Valambrosa's only much heavier; and any attempt at a study of them results in overloading the memory with such a quantity of dry facts and dates as few even well-balanced minds could succeed in retaining, or would probably wish to retain. What I wished particularly to refer to was the action of the Government through the Department for the Preservation of Ancient Monuments, over which Captain Cole now presides, in rescuing the monuments of India from the condition of utter neglect and decay by which, in the course of a few years more, many of the most interesting of them would have been entirely obliterated: for it was not alone the process of natural decay and the impairment arising from neglect which they had to contend with; they had to contend with that pioneer of civilization, the Public Works Department, who thought nothing of demolishing an interesting memorial to make way for a railway, and who as a matter of fact were in the habit of building lines with the stone blocks which were readily obtainable from neighbouring monuments. Here, for instance, in Agra, an interesting old monument named the "Tirpolia," situated between the Jumna Musjid (an immense pile of building, full of historical interest, and affording a picturesque view from the line of railway) and the Fort of Akbar, has had to give way to the necessity of constructing the railway station which now partially occupies its site. The Government, however, are apparently now determined to put a stop to all the desecration, and local engineer officers are specially charged at all important stations possessing memorials of interest with the duty of repairing and generally looking after such memorials. Here in Agra the work is carried on by Mr. Heath, Executive Engineer, and under his superintendence many important repairs and improvements have been effected. The Taj and the grounds and buildings around it, for instance, which when I saw them some years ago were allowed to fall into such a condition of utter neglect that public attention was called to the matter, are now carefully looked after by the magistrate of the station. The Taj gardens, above whose dark, luxuriant foliage, in the mellow light of evening before the sun goes down, that famous building rises like an aerial spirit in stone or a beautiful dream, bear evidence of much thought-ful care, which is also extended to the buildings around. By the way, I was greatly struck yesterday by the wonderful echo to be found in the spacious apartment under the principal dome of the Taj, and which guide-books, so far as I have seen them, have not done sufficient justice to. The sounds of ordinary conversation are sent back in confused murmurings, dwindling away into long-sustained cadences which, in the case of a single voice, are remarkable for their musical sweetness. I possess neither a very powerful nor a very dominant voice, but I tried the effect of singing a verse of one of Moore's melodies, and the result was astonishing. Every note on being sung was taken up, as it seemed, by a sweetly-toned musical instrument, and prolonged with decreasing force, but with the most perfect harmony, till it died away into the faintest whisper. The first note had not thus died away when the last had been sung, and the effect produced by the delicate and effective blending of all the notes together in one harmonious melody was indescribably beautiful. Should any of your readers ever visit the Taj let them try it; they will never forget it. But to return to the monuments. The Jehangiri Mahal, one of the palaces situated within the Fort, and which displays in its work a greater amount of Hindu art than the others, has been skilfully repaired. Another place of interest in the Fort is the Baoli, or galleried well, the underground passages of which leading to the palace buildings have only recently been explored by Major Judge, Executive Engineer, Military Works. The Dewan-i-Am, another of the Fort buildings, which was formerly used as a store for munitions of war, has now been repaired and opened out, and the celebrated Gates of Somnath are now, I believe, placed within it. The work of restoration has also been extended to the Machi Bawan, Akbar's tomb at Secundra, the grounds of which have only recently been rescued from a wilderness, and the tomb of Itmad-ud-Dowlah, across the river, the buildings and grounds of which have been carefully repaired. All this amounts to a very small proportion of the important and extensive work of preservation which is going on in India. A great deal has been done, but there is still much to be done; and there can be no question that the object is one deserving of all the attention bestowed upon it, and of whatever pecuniary support the Government are prepared to extend to it.

Yesterday afternoon, as I informed you by telegraph, the Viceroy and Lady Ripon, accompanied by Mr. Primrose, Private Secretary, the Rev. H. Kerr, and one or two other members of the staff, drove out to Futtehpore-Sikri, a place also possessing interesting monumental remains. The party were conveyed in two carriages drawn by artillery horses, artillerymen acting as postilions, and the 14th Bengal Lancers doing escort duty. Relays of horses were arranged for along the distance, about 22 miles, which was accomplished within three hours. Besides its ancient ruins (a description of which I leave to the guide-books) Futtehpore-Sikri is remarkable as being the place which supplied the red sandstone with which the majority of the ancient buildings to be found in Agra and Delhi are constructed. The stone is of indifferent quality for building purposes; it chips and decomposes very readily, and the picturesque effect produced by it in buildings is at least a matter of opinion. The principal object of interest to the viceregal party was of course the Great Mosque or Dargah, with the Buland Durwaza or high gate. From the top of the latter an extensive and very picturesque view is obtained of the surrounding country for a distance of 30 miles if the day is clear. Bhurtpore is visible in the distance, and so also is the Jumna, which winds its sinuous way in the direction of the glittering though far-off towers and domes of Agra. The carriages containing the Viceroy's party arrived at Futtehpore-Sikri after dark, and the beauties of the Great Mosque and the marble tomb were viewed after dinner, in the moonlight. The tents for the visitors were pitched close to the original Mosque of Selim Chisti, just behind the Great Mosque. Birbal's House, also close by, is now used as a bungalow for the accommodation of visitors, and the dâk bungalow is located in what used to be the office of the great Akbar. I am told, however, that it is proposed to build a dâk bungalow for visitors, in order to allow of these buildings being opened out to inspection. Numerous other interesting ruins are scattered over the extensive enclosure of the ancient ramparts of the town. The Buland Durwaza, or high gateway, referred to above, was visited by the party in the morning before breakfast, whence a splendid view of the monuments and country around was obtained. Apart from its height and massiveness, this gateway is remarkable for the skill and truth with which two figures of elephants, of natural size, are carved in stone. The viceregal party left Futtehpore-Sikri for Agra late in the afternoon, arriving about 7 p. m. After dinner the levée was held in camp in the great shamiana, which was brilliantly lighted up with chandeliers, which showed off to the best advantage the bright scarlet uniforms and the glittering arms of the men of the Viceroy's body-guard and of the Dragoon Guards, who were drawn up in the levée-room, and who did duty at the entrances. The levée was very numerously attended, the majority of presentations being, of course, military. The various members of the civil community appeared as usual habited in the sable uniform of orthodox respectability, and looked from a distance like so many dark daubs in an otherwise bright picture. The Viceroy took his stand before a handsomely gilded chair of State, and upon a small square carpet glittering with gold ornamentation. Right and left were his staff, and at some distance to the right Sir George Couper, with a distinguished group of civil and military officers, forming, I presume, the circle embraced in the term entrée. It is scarcely worth while troubling you with a general list of those present on the occasion, as it would unnecessarily occupy your columns with matter altogether local; but I note the officers of the private entrée list, who were as follows:—The Hon'ble Mr. Grant, Major A. Murray, Capt. King-Harman, Col. Geo. Chesney, Lt.-General Sir Robert Bright, Brigadier-General Evans, Mr. J. C. Robertson, Major Erskine, Sir Lepel Griffin, Mr. R. T. Hobart, Lieut.-Col. Dennehy, Major A. Playfair, Captain A. C. Talbot, Lieut.-Colonel B. Combe, Colonel Alexander, the Right Rev. M. A. Jacopi, and the Right Rev. Dr. Tosi. The ceremony of presentation did not occupy more than half an hour.

This afternoon between half-past three and half-past four the Viceroy received the Native Chiefs at present in Agra in that perfectly formal manner which distinguishes all such receptions. As the interviews were private, no salutes were fired. Sindia came first in the Viceroy's State carriage, with outriders and attended by nine of his principal sirdars. At a distance of about a quarter of a mile from the camp he was met by Mr. Durand, the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department, and an aide-de-camp of the Viceroy, who conducted his Highness with all due solemnity to the entrance of the shamiana, where he was formally made over to the charge of Mr. Grant, the Foreign Secretary, and another aide-de-camp, who in turn conducted him before the Viceroy. The interview, which lasted about a quarter of an hour, were conducted in strict privacy, as all such interviews are, only political officers and others immediately concerned being present; so I am unable to tell you what passed. A short conversation was, no doubt, indulged in, nuzzurs were touched and remitted, and attar and pan distributed. Precisely the same ceremonies were repeated with respect to the two other chiefs—Bhurtpore and Dholepore, except perhaps that the distance demanded from the Under-Secretary was more limited, and that the Viceroy instead of receiving them at the extreme edge of his own particular carpet, as in the case of Sindia, received them in the middle of it,—a fact which, while it made not the slighest difference to his Excellency, was matter of the most imperial and weighty concern to the chief in question. There was very little display about the proceedings, which were quietly conducted, even the chiefs themselves showing a moderate amount of jewelry and decoration in their attire. The ball given by the Station to the visitors was as successful as its promoters could wish. Nearly all the invitations (about 200) were responded to, and early in the evening the large hall of the Rink presented a very lively and picturesque scene from the various military uniforms and the handsome toilettes of the ladies which composed it. The band of the King's Dragoon Guards played during the night. This evening there is a reception after dinner by their Excellencies, and the Viceroy receives a deputation from the Municipality of Agra, who come to present an address of welcome.

PARSEE VOLUNTEERS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

Sir,—I was glad to see that article in the Gazette regarding the admission of Parsees into volunteer corps. In that respect people in Central and Upper India are more liberal-minded than here, for amongst the names submitted for a Western India Rifle Association meeting at Jeypore last October, there was that of S. Dosabhoy, a volunteer I presume, belonging to the Agra Volunteers. Then, again, I know that some time ago there was one Mr. Kaikaoos M. Tata (head-clerk, Currency Office) who was a volunteer at Akola.

RUSTOM.

A USEFUL INSTITUTION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

Sir,—Will you kindly acknowledge in Monday's issue the gift of Rs. 40 from "F. H. W.," Deolalee, and Rs. 30 from "H. R. MacD.," Rajkote, towards the purchase of warm clothing for the women and children in homeward-bound troopships.—Yours, &c.

OCCULTISM.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

Sir,—Allow me to recommend Mr. S. J. Padsha, who has been recently adorning your columns with his lucubrations on occultism, to spend an evening with Mr. Kellar at the Gaiety Theatre? I am sure the very first visit would convince him that Mr. Kellar is a member of that blessed fraternity existing on the other side of the Himalayas, and of which Koot Homi Lall Sing is the reputed father. Mr. Kellar works no miracles more stupendous or amazing than the Himalayan brotherhood can lay claim to.

THE BOMBAY VOLUNTEERS.

The battalion parade under the Commandant, Major General Hewett, on Saturday afternoon, was very poorly attended, there being only 139 of all ranks, exclusive of the band, present. The parade was called for five o'clock, and it was nearly half-past five o'clock before the battalion marched from the Town Hall. Several movements were gone through in the Oval, and chiefly in the dark. The formations were rather loose occasionally, and the marching and wheeling were not up to the usual mark; but it being the first battalion parade of the season, all ranks were naturally a little rusty after their long vacation. Before the parade was dismissed, the Adjutant, Lieut. Proudfoot, announced that the parade next Saturday will be called for half-past four instead of five o'clock; and he hopes to see a good turn out, as in preparation for brigade drills with the regulars in January. The following was the parade state:—

The officers present, besides General Hewett, the Commandant, and Lieut. Proudfoot, Adjutant, were Major Bayley, Captains Tennent, Wyer and Noble; Lieutenants Freeborn, Brown, Whitehead, Roughton, and Nicholson.

ATTENDANCE AT PARADE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

Sir,—It's very well for either you or Captain Tennent to ask our wives, daughters, "sisters, cousins, or aunts," to coax their male relatives to become volunteers, but if one's hours of labour are from 6 A. M. till 6 P. M. how can one attend any parade? I am not alone in this case: there are plenty others tied down likewise, and, like myself, "old soldiers," who thoroughly understand their drill, and therefore would not be required to attend morning parades, but might swell the ranks at a battalion parade, or when their country needed them. The men I speak of are employed along the whole foreshore of Bombay, in all sorts of employments, and if, as in England, a half holiday on Saturday were given them, they would gladly enrol themselves again under the old flag. Now, sir, could not you stir up the Fort Trustees (or anyone else in authority), and ask them to "shut up shop" (bunders and dock) early on Saturdays and give their employés a chance of fulfilling their duty as B. R. Volunteers?

wish to be abused he had better not stand there and on Johnson endeavouring to reason with his countryman, as he took the constable to be, the latter, it is alleged, caught him by the collar of his coat and attempted to bring him to the ground; and, apparently being vexed at his non-success, he without the least necessity called police constable Hainow, No. 10, and two native constables to his assistance. The quarter then pinioned and carried Johnson, face downwards, to the police lock-up. Thomas Boyle, cook of the Glenesk, who witnessed the proceedings, following at a distance of about ten or twelve paces in rear. Johnson's hat meanwhile fell off as the procession neared the police office, which was picked up by Boyle at the request of Johnson. After entering the compound and in going along the narrow covered passage leading to the lock-up, Moren is reported to have kicked Johnson several times about the body and head. A severe kick on the eye caused the unfortunate victim to become insensible. Moren at this stage, noticing that Boyle was in close attendance and a witness to what occurred, ordered him to be taken into custody also, charging him with having attempted to rescue Johnson. (Johnson and Boyle were both perfectly sober at the time.) Moren, it is added, tore Boyle's coat and shirt into ribbons, after the man had been secured in the lock-up so as to make it appear that a scuffle had previously taken place. The men, after being knocked about from pillar to post, were taken on board their respective vessels, where the usual Commissioner's fee of Rs. 2 each was demanded and realised for such services. Captain Christie, of the Accrington, from philanthropic motives, is determined, however, not to allow the matter to drop, and a summons was in consequence applied for and obtained, through his solicitor Mr. C. Smith, against police constable John Moren.—Statesman.

MADRAS.

THE NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.—The P. and O. steam-ship Clyde, which is expected to arrive in our roads to-day (Saturday) from London, is bringing out General Sir Frederick Roberts, Commander-in-Chief of Madras, and His Excellency's personal staff. A guard of honour will probably parade on the beach, formed by the detachment of Her Majesty's 7th Dragoon Guards with band and colours.—Madras Times.

SUICIDE IN A RAILWAY TRAIN.—The passenger train which was due at the Egmore station of the South Indian at 5 p. m., on Wednesday, did not arrive till 10 minutes past six o'clock. The delay was owing to a derailment between Tuticorin and Madura. In addition to this the train was delayed at Chingleput owing to a sad occurrence in the train. A European who was a passenger from Pondicherry was found dead in the train, when it reached Chingleput, with his throat cut, and razor by his side. The Superintendent of Police held an investigation.—Times.

THE BISHOP'S TOUR.—The Bishop of Madras started on his visitation tour in the Cuddapah District on Oct. 31st. He has visited some of the chief stations of the S. P. G. Mission under the Rev. J. Clay, and has confirmed 371 candidates. The kindness of the officials, and of the Missionary in charge of the District, and their admirable arrangements, have greatly reduced the difficulties of what must be a wearying visitation under the most favourable circumstances. From Murtyalpad, the Bishop goes to Kalgaped in the Badvel valley.—Times.

DEATHS IN MADRAS.—From the 29th ultimo to the 4th instant, 1 European, 12 East Indians, 5 Native Christians, 218 Hindoos, and 28 Mahomedans died in Madras, making a total of 263 persons. The average of the corresponding week for the ten previous years was 269. The deaths are thus classified: 10 from small-pox, 1 from measles, 80 from fever, 27 from dysentery, 14 from diarrhœa, 1 from cholera, and 130 from other diseases. The population, according to the last census, being 379,552, the death-rate in the week under notice was at the rate of 34·4 per 1,000 per annum. The mean of the ten previous years was 33·3 per 1,000 per annum.

ATTEMPT TO DERAIL A TRAIN.—A correspondent, writing from Sunkerrydroog, states:—"The railway officials were startled on the night of the 25th ultimo on receiving information of a most daring attempt to derail the 7-45 a. m. mail-train from Beypore between Sunkerrydroog and McDonald's Choultry railway stations. It would appear that a large stone, capable of being carried with the greatest difficulty by one man, had been placed on the rail about 10 to 12 feet away from a bridge. Fortunately the stone was pitched off the line by the cow-catcher to a distance of 7 feet. The cow-catcher was the only part of the train damaged. The police department have detected the culprits, one of whom is a villager named Nullah Gownden, and the other Muttian Gownden, a discharged line watchman. The case is now pending in the court of the second class magistrate of Sunkerrydroog.

THE OPENING DAY OF THE MADRAS HUNT.

"Tally Ho" writes to the Madras Mail as follows:—The first meet of the Madras Fox-hunts took place on Wednesday, the 9th instant, at Nautambakum Bridge, about two miles on the Poonamallee side of the Mount, and will be remembered as a red-letter day in the annals of the Madras Hunt. The fair sex were conspicuous by their absence, but considering that the meet was not an advertised one, a fair number of sportsmen turned up. Among those present at first besides the new Master, Mr. John Fortune were Messrs. Crake, Palmer, Highton, and Major Pigott, and as the first covert was being tried several more joined, among whom were Dr. Branfoot, Messrs. Bidwell Yorke, W. S. Shaw, H. S. Sewell, Bartleiot and some dozen more. The Master, moved off punctually at 5-45 A.M., and commenced by drawing the topes on the left hand of the Poonamallee Road. Hounds were hardly in cover before there was a whimper, and in less than five minutes, the welcome "gone away" was heard. Getting his hounds out of cover, the Master quickly laid them on, and the run began in real earnest. Across a plain through a small tope where hounds did not dwell a moment we came to the well known betel topes, and here there seemed every chance of their being a long check, owing to the size of the cover, and the difficulty of getting the "varmint" out; but the hounds hustled him about so much that he tried the open again, and had got two fields away, but was headed and got into the betel tope again. No time, however, was given him; and in a few minutes he was forced to seek the open, this time towards the Poonamallee Road, along which he went for a short distance in the direction of the Mount. Striking to the left we pointed for Saidapett, over a line of country which included wet paddy fields and numerous topes, till we came to the Adyar. Crossing this the scent led us over the plain where the rifle butts are, and into a straggling tope. In this the jack was evidently headed, or changed his mind, for suddenly swinging round he retraced his steps across the plain in view of the whole Hunt, re-swam the Adyar, and adopted a new line, making Mungeekari his point. After crossing the Kodambaukum road, however, the pace began to tell on all, so much so that the Master was forced to change his horse for the whip's which enabled him to come in time in his place at the death of as gallant a jack as ever ran before hound. Time, 1 hour and 10 mins. Considering the recent heavy rains the country was in fair order for going. There were one or two casualties, but fortunately no bone broken. A better race has, I believe, never been known in the annals of the Madras Hunt, and the Master deserves the congratulations of all its members for such a successful opening of this régime.

N.-W. PROVINCES, OUDH, AND PUNJAB.

ALLAHABAD WATER-SUPPLY.—The proposal for giving the Civil station, city, and cantonments of Allahabad a water-supply seems likely to be shelved, in spite of many arguments, economical and sanitary, which could be urged in support of the idea.—Pioneer.

PROPOSED CAMP OF EXERCISE AT UMBALLA.—Opportunity will, probably, be taken of the gathering of so many troops as will necessarily pass through Umballa, during the ensuing cold weather, to form a small camp of exercise at that station. The temporary assemblage of troops for such a purpose is attended with very little expense or inconvenience, while the advantage derivable by officers and men from the extended exercises, thus rendered possible, is very considerable.—Civil and Military Gazette.

OFFICIAL CHANGES.—On Mr. Tolbort, Deputy Commissioner, Umballa, going on furlough, Major Parker will hold charge of the Umballa District temporarily, and not Mr. Benton as previously announced. Mr. Steel, Officiating Deputy Commissioner, Muzaffargbur, on the return of Mr. O'Brien, will be posted to Gujranwalla.—Civil and Military Gazette.

On dit that Mr. Sparks, now Commissioner of Lucknow, succeeds Mr. Capper as Judicial Commissioner of Oudh: Mr. J. Quinn, C. S., obtaining the reversion of Mr. Sparks' much coveted appointment.—Pioneer.

MR. JACOB'S JEWLLERY TRANSACTIONS.—The Anjuman-i-Punjab writes:—Success waits on the banners or rather "talwars" of Mr. Jacob of Simla notoriety. He had recently put his name down as a purchaser of a scabbard inlaid with jewels, the property, we believe, of the Maharaja of Patiala and marked Rs. 350 at the late Simla Exhibition. Whether this price ought to have been increased by a "nought" and thus should have been Rs. 3,500, informant does not depose, but, anyhow, Captain Cole, the tutelary genius of the Exhibition, objected to Mr. Jacob acquiring the talwar for the firstnamed sum, with the result of having to give way eventually, so that Mr. Jacob has won a second victory of the sword following the one contested with General Hamilton, who, we understand, intends to appeal against the decision of the Judicial Assistant of Simla in the now famous jewel case.

BURMAH.

THEEBAW AND HIS WIVES.—King Theebaw is said to have abandoned his intention of joining the Bhuddist priesthood, and to have become reconciled to the queen who wanted a divorce. There was a rumour last week that she had disappeared, and on sudden disappearances in the royal palace, Mandalay, too often mean sudden death, it was thought that the queen had perhaps been put out of the reach of further trouble in this world. The report, however, was not confirmed, and the more pleasing one of a return of connubial felicity between Theebaw and his spouse is contained in the most recently received Mandaylay letters.—Statesman's Rangoon Correspondent.

A DOCKYARD OFFICER DROWNED AT RANGOON.—Mr. A. G. Graham, a Custom House Inspector, was unfortunately drowned last week in the Rangoon river. He was returning about midnight from his duties, when, according to the statement of the bazaars in his boat, he attempted to cross the bows of a Bassein steamer, and his boat was upset. Although the steamer, at once lowered her boats, she was unable to assist Mr. Graham, but the crew of the boat was saved. The deceased officer had been about 20 years in the Burmah preventive service and was contemplaitng retiring from the service shortly.

TESTIMONIALS.

RHEUMATISM, &c.—"HENRY'S THILUM" has been used in my own family, and its use recommended by me to others. As an emollient, anodyne and detergent applications it is no of SURPASSING VIRTUE. In Rheumatic affections its efficacy, when well rubbed in, cannot be questioned, while its fragrance effectually meets one of the greatest objections to unguents in general.

Surgeon General (Madras Retired.)
Burmore, Bridge of Allan, 23rd June, 1881.

RINGWORM.—For the last twelve months I had been suffering from Ringworm about my neck, which did not yield to any of the various remedies I used. Having got a box of "HENRY'S THILUM" from you, I made no hesitation in trying it. Six or seven applications of the ointment in two days completely cured me of the disease. I am much delighted to communicate to you this result of my trial of your "THILUM" with a view to your recommending it as a SPECIFIC FOR RINGWORM.

HEMICRANIA AND SCORPION STINGS.—I have used "THILUM" for a pain which I was subject to on one side of my head and face, and it gave me IMMEDIATE relief. I have also applied "THILUM" for Scorpian Stings, and find that it takes much effect and gives IMMEDIATE relief.
